PLEA DEAL

In the Criminal matter of R. v. 1YT_MIK, the prosecution has come forward with the following plea deal. Upon signature of this agreement, the defendant shall report to his assigned probation officer, who shall be Vinnyvxx, who shall have the authority to reassign or add additional probation officers.

Failure to follow this agreement within the date specified by both parties, the defendant shall be sentenced under the charge of obstruction of a peace officer, and be sentenced to 300 seconds in jail. If the defendant is to complete all terms before the date specified, the defendant shall have his charges sealed and expunged.

The following are the terms of the agreement:

- The Defendant is to plead guilty to obstruction of a peace officer.
  - He will serve no jail time unless he fails to complete this agreement.
- The Defendant is to go without a complaint inside the law enforcement agency they are employed in for a period of thirty days.
  - If there is a complaint submitted, the probation officer shall be notified by the defendant. The defendant will then send the probation officer the evidence in the case, and it is up to the agency, and the department of law if the defendant violated agency policy.
- The Defendant is not authorized to join any further law enforcement agencies for a period of thirty days.
  - They are not required to leave their current departments.
- The Defendant shall not be arrested, or cited within the next thirty period. If they are cited or arrested, they must notify their probation officer.
- The Defendant shall be required to complete three hours of community service.
  - The community service must be approved and supervised by the probation officer(s) assigned.
- The Defendant shall be required to take a leave of absence for a period of seven days.
  - During these seven days, they shall not be authorized to go on any team for any reason. If there is an emergency, or the department does not allow this, the probation officer must be notified.

- If the probation officer believes any of the terms of this agreement have been violated, he shall notify the court, the prosecution, and the defendant within 24 hours of the infraction unless the infraction was not known by the probation officer at the time it took place.

This agreement must be completed before July 31st, 2022.
