

CASE CITATION: Phantomy_TheKING v. British Columbia Sheriff's Service
2022 BCPC 3

ARTICLE I - INFORMATION

Petitioner: Phantomy_TheKING
Defendant: British Columbia Sheriff's Service

STATEMENT OF FACTS:

"I was falsely fired from BCSS, I want to challenge that in a court of law. Further, the IA team failed to change my document into a PDF which is a violation of the employee rights act." -
Phantomy_TheKING

ALLEGATIONS:

- iii. The document must be delivered to the employee that action has been taken against in a format that is unable to be edited afterwards. A Google Document is not an appropriate format and must be converted to a PDF and uploaded to Google Drive.
- Revised Employee Rights act of 2021

n. Right to challenge disciplinary action shall be defined as the act to contest, in a court of law, a termination or other disciplinary action, made within a Public Agency. -
Torts act of 2020

In the later-to-be-mentioned evidence, it shows the disciplinary document not in the required-by-law PDF form, which suggests a Violation of [R]ERA, a criminal offense.

DESCRIPTION OF ACTION:

On 01/01/2022, Phantomy_TheKING was suspended and demoted in the British Columbia Sheriff's Service for supposed "Radio Misconduct, Violation of Uniform Policy, and violation of ZTP".
