TIME LIMIT FOR A DEFENDANT TO REPLY

The defendant must complete and file a Reply within 48 hours from being prompted by the Court. It is advised that upon service of this notice, the defendant begins to prepare a reply, unless the defendant settles this claim directly with the claimant. If the defendant does not reply, a court order may be made against the defendant without any further notice to the defendant. Then the defendant will have to pay the amount claimed plus interest and further expenses and all or some of the other relief requested.
