Chapter 2: Model Party Rules

2.1 Party Name and Founding

- a. ReformBC (the “Party”) shall be established.

2.2 Values of the Party

- a. ReformBC is committed to promote the following policies:

I. Back to Work

A ReformBC government will immediately get British Columbia back to work. This includes opening the new parliament, introducing new laws/legislation, organizing outreach events, visiting establishments, a weekly audience with the Lieutenant Governor, and collaborating with people and businesses regularly.

II. Foreign Relations

ReformBC will re-establish old friendships and create new ones. The government will ensure that there are clear goals and initiatives between allies. We will create agreements, joint policies, creating a leeway for businesses, joint military exercises, and more.

III. The Commerce Sector

ReformBC is 100% committed to reforming our business sector. We intend to start fresh from the events of April 5th, and give businesses, from before that event and after, a chance to grow through our government initiatives. We aim to bring about a "business spotlight", including cash prizes to help out businesses. We also intend to indirectly provide a sense of support for businesses that show potential whether that would be through development, or government assistance such as loans.

IV. The Criminal World

The criminals of British Columbia deserve to be represented at all times. ReformBC will ensure that criminals would receive equal opportunity, and that our sentencing from our courts system will be as ethical and fair as possible. We will also ensure that criminal pardons are available, with a fair and equal assessment of each candidate that wants to clear their record. Criminals who want to stay as criminals will be able to provide feedback through a separate, confidential form where they can state their ideas, criticism of the government and our law enforcement.

V. Public Safety & Relations

ReformBC will ensure that all situations that pose a threat to life are monitored closely by the government, the Governors, and the Canadian Armed Forces. We will have regulations in place on how to act if a situation occurs. We want to respond to situations appropriately. We will ensure that human (and animal) life is safe at all times in all of our territories. Moreover, our law enforcement officers and public services will be kept closely monitored to ensure there is no to little misconduct. We strive for our law enforcement officers to maintain professionalism, and respond to situations effectively, appropriately and professionally. If you see any law enforcement officer misconducting themselves and abusing their power, we will have procedures in place where you can report these situations directly to our team or through the suspects department.

VI. The Justice System

The Justice System is one of the most fragile and delicate parts of a democratic nation. We will ensure that the Ministry of Justice is as ethical and unbiased as possible. Like with all departments, the Ministry of Justice will be monitored closely and will ensure that all is fair. This means that in all situations, there is context given so that there will be a fair response. We will also ensure that those facing penalties have a fair sentencing that matches the crime they committed.

VII. Government Transparency

ReformBC will be transparent and truthful at all times. This means decision making is to be public, and for the best interest of British Columbia.
