JUDGEMENT OF IN RE TAXFRAUDBRUH

On January 31st, user TaxFraudBruh (hereinafter referred to as the "Petitioner") filed an expungement application to seal his record and the Crown Attorney's Office did seek to contest the application.

In the matter of an application by TaxFraudBruh pursuant to Article 10 of the Constitution Act of 1867, the application is hereby granted. The petitioner came before the court seeking an expungement because he wants to join Translink. However, his records are keeping him from doing so. Unfortunately, the petitioner was arrested January 28th for "Disobeying a Court Order" and after discussing with him regarding the matter, it was clear that the petitioner was falsely arrested. Furthermore, this court has no reason to deny his application; thus his expunction shall be granted in full. The court recommends the petitioner file a civil lawsuit against the officer who arrested him for said reason.
