At all times relevant to this indictment:

Count [1] (Manslaughter)

On or around December 28th, to the best knowledge of the Ministry of Justice, Cats_law did swing his baton in order to break the window of a person in a car. In doing so, Cats_law (hereinafter "defendant"), killed the driver of the car. Cats_law did not exercise proper care when utilizing his baton which resulted in the death of a citizen.

Count [2] (Criminal Negligence)

On or around December 28th, to the best knowledge of the Ministry of Justice, Cats_law did knowingly swing his baton to break a window of a car; however, due to not taking the proper precautions the defendant killed the victim instead. The defendants actions were reckless in nature.

Count [3] (Common Nuisance)

On or around the 28th of December, the Defendant did cause danger to the public through their reckless actions as described in count 1 and 2.
