JUDGEMENT OF IN RE MTR5412

On January 23rd, user MTR5412 (hereinafter referred to as the "Petitioner") filed an expungement application to seal his record and the Crown Attorney's Office did seek to contest such application.

In the matter of an application by MTR5412 pursuant to Article 10 of the Constitution Act of 1867, the application is hereby granted. After reviewing the answers given by the petitioner, it is clear that the petitioner regrets the crimes he's committed and wishes to make a career change. Therefore, the court finds no reason for his petition to be denied; thus his expunction shall be granted in full. The court would like to wish him the best in his future law enforcement career and endeavors.
