JUDGEMENT OF IN RE ACROPOLISTIS

On January 16th, user Acropolistis (hereinafter referred to as the "Petitioner") filed an expungement application to seal his record and the Crown Attorney's Office did not seek to contest such application.

In the matter of an application by Acropolistis pursuant to Article 10 of the Constitution Act of 1867, the application is hereby denied. According to the Rules of Procedures of Expungement Proceedings, Rule 13.6., an applicant cannot commit a crime 30 days prior to their hearing. Unfortunately, Acropolistis has continued to commit illegal acts and has been arrested January 13th, which has been his last arrest since. It's apparent the petitioner hasn't shown clear and convincing evidence of reform; therefore, this court has a reason to deny this petition, thus his expunction shall not be granted.
